

Staffordshire Bull Terrier
Exhibition Group
Registered Charity No. 111063

Application for Membership

Our aim is to preserve, record and promote the history of the Staffordshire Bull Terrier and its long and illustrious connection with the Black Country.

We are a registered charity dedicated to promoting the history of 'The Staffie'. We hold exhibitions across the country and are seeking to create here within the Black Country a permanent exhibition dedicated to the breed.

We also run the 'Friends of the Staffordshire Bull Terrier Group'.

We welcome any individuals or groups into membership who have an interest in or involvement with the breed.

Benefits of membership include:

As a member of the group you will receive copies of our news updates, and will be invited to take part in helping to record and preserve the history of the breed for future generations to come.

Categories of Membership and yearly subscription fees:
